ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

To fill a vacancy in the office of first lieutenant in the Brattleboro company of the V. N. G., Second Lieut. Roy B. Miner was elected.

was in town Wednesday. The price of chestnut, stove and egg coal, which have been selling for $11 a ton in Brattleboro through the winter, has been reduced to $10.

Rev. Hugo Perdelwitz, paetor of the Universalist church at White River Junction, has tendered his resignation, to take effect May 14. He resigned because of poor health.

Louis, 14-year-old son of Chauncey Young of Brattleboro, had one finger on his left hand broken Wednesday when a Wednesday. revolver which he was handling was accidentally discharged.

Michael Duggan of Brattleboro received injuries about the chest, hip and Wednesday, when he knocked from the tender of an engine by the spout of the standpipe, from which the engine was to take water.

Lucian Bailey, aged 68, died instantly of cerebral hemorrhage Thursday afternoon while returning to Pittsford from Rutland with a load of coal. Mr. Bailey was walking up a hill behind the load when he was seen to fall. Only an instant before he had waved his hand in greeting to men working in a field near-

Col. Fred B. Thomas, Maj. J. M. Ashley and Captains Charles E. Pell, Bert S. Hyland, H. A Wilcox, H. M. Howe, and R. L. Corey have been selected to represent the Vermont National Guard at a convention of the national association, to be held in New York City March

Two petitions in bankruptcy were filed Friday. Lewis T. LeClair of Sutton gives his liabilities as $,138.14 and his assets at $535 with $150 exempt. William E. Palmer of South Shaftsbury has liabilities of $1,920.34 and assets of $638, with $340 claimed exempt.

A beautiful fawn, chased by dogs, was driven into the river at Bolton, where it was found by the May brothers. They took the animal out of the water, carried her to their home and cared for her during the night, but she had been in the icy water so long and been so thoroughly chilled that she died.

The senior class of the Swanton high school have given up their proposed trip to Washington, D. C., following the receipt of a letter by Prin. R. C. Kimball from Senator Carroll S. Page, advising such action. The senator states that at least 50 per cent of the public buildings in the nation's capital are closed and extreme precautions are being taken.

Mrs. Fremont Hamilton of Brattleboro lost a diamond from the setting of her ring the other day and after searching house and the walks outside she remembered she had been making ice cream before she missed the stone. The ice and snow were melted with hot water and the contents of the freezer strained, and Mrs. Hamilton was rewarded by finding the valuable stone.

Forest Grant, aged eight years, saved the life of a nine-year-old companion, Guy Brickey, at White River Junction Thursday. While playing on the bank of the Connecticut river, Brickey slipped down the icy bank into six or eight feet of water. Grant made his way down to the water's edge and pulled Brickey out by the hair of his head. The rescued boy was nearly unconscious when taken from the water.

Miss Rose Allen, a former teacher of German in the Brattleboro high school, has been removed from the list of substitute teachers in Portland, Me., because she wore a German flag concealed in her waist on the day the teachers had been asked to wear American flags in a preparedness demonstration. She wore a small bow of the national colors on the outside of her waist, but took pains to tell the other teachers that the German 10. J. DODGE, The Jeweler emblem was the one she loved best. She is American born, but studied for several years in Germany.

Sugar utensil manufacturers report that many more sugar maple trees are to be tapped this season than ever before. Twelve cents per pound is being offered in Burlington markets for sugar in tubs, when from five to eight cents is the usual price for this time of the year. A. A. Carleton, former president of the Ver-mont Maple Sugarmakers' association, is planning an exhibit to be given in Boston later, one feature of which will be a maple sugar model of Bunker Hill monu-

The contract for building the first sec tion of the plant of the Vermont Milk Chocolate company at Burlington has been awarded to James E. Cashman of that city, his bid being the lowest of five entered for the construction of the build-The highest bid was $112,000, by the R. H. Howes Construction company of Boston, and the lowest $85,979.11. The first section of the factory must be com pleted by July I, and this when ready for occupancy will employ from 200 to 300 hands. All of this labor, with the exception of the heads of departments, about five in number, will be drawn from this

Put Stick in Knot.

When tying a knot in rope which must stand much strain, put a stick of soft wood in the knot for it to close on. When you want to untie the knot, break the stick and pull out both ends. Your knot can be easily untied. Farm and Fireside.

Dog Licenses: Notice to Owners and 1

Keepers. All dogs within the city one month old and over must be licensed on or before the first day of April, 1917, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 237 of the public statutes of Vermont and Sec. 4, chapter 43, of the ordinances of the city of Barre. The fees, if licensed by April 1, 1917, are as follows: Females 88, males and spayed females $2. Fees if licensed after April 1 and before May 15, 1917: Females 812, males and spayed females $5. After May 1, 1917, all unlicensed dogs will be shot and the owners or keepers will be subject to a fine of $20.
